

PRA'S 1st NATIONAL ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION

1. BACKGROUND

The Philippine Retirement Authority is launching its 1st Essay Writing Competition in conjunction with its nationwide awareness campaign to promote local towns and cities suitable as second homes and retirement destinations for foreign retirees with the following objectives:

- 1) To gather information on the different towns and cities of the Philippines that can be uploaded in the PRA website which will be made available to foreign nationals and investors;
- 2) To promote awareness among youth about the various assets present in their towns and cities;
- 3) To develop the research thinking, and communication skills of the youth including the familiarity with correct grammar, spelling, and writing style; and
- 4) To publicize the winning entries, both locally and internationally, thru the different government and private websites.

The theme of the essay is “Dear Foreign Retiree, Why you should retire in my town”,

The 1st PRA Essay Writing Contest is divided into two categories: High School Category, and College Category
